CHURCH STREET STATION
OM iP

Church Street Station (61 x 30') SD

Church Street Station first aired in 1988 and was recorded live at the The Cheyenne Saloon and Opera House' in Orlando, Florida. Presented by the legendary singer/actor Rex Allen Sr, Church Street Station brings you the best live performances from all your country music favourites! Featuring Merle Haggard, Gene Watson, Barbara Fairchild, T.G. Shepperd, Mel Tillis, The Bellamy Brothers, Tanya Tucker, Rex Allen Jr and many more.

Ep 1: Barbara Fairchild, Bobby Lord and Zeke Sheppard

Barbara Fairchild is best known for her 1973 hit "The Teddy Bear Song". Bobby Lord was best known for his top 10 hit "Without Your Love".

Ep 2: T.G. Sheppard, Carme and Wayne Billingsley

T.G. Sheppard achieved 14 number-one hits including "I Loved 'Em Everyone" and "Only One You", both of which are performed at Church Street.

Ep 3: Tanya Tucker and H. McMillon

Tanya Tucker landed her first hit "Delta Dawn" at the age of 13 and went on to achieve great success with a string of top-10 and top-40 hits.

Ep 4: Patty Stone, Zeke Sheppard and Terri Gibbs

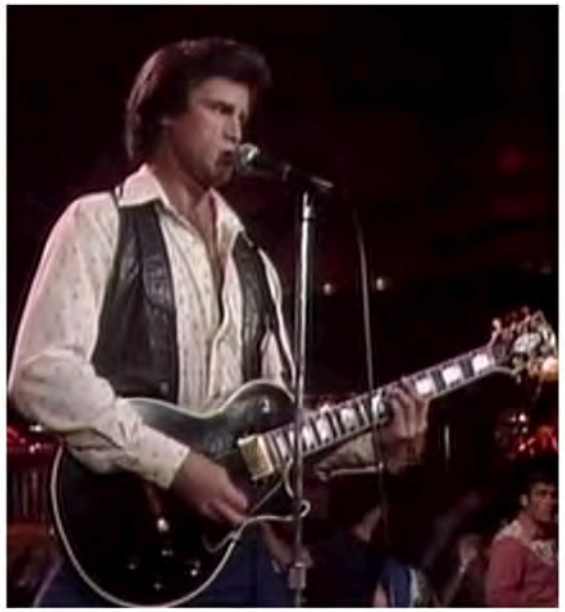
Terri Gibbs is a blind country music artist with eleven studio albums. She landed 13 singles on the Billboard country singles chart, including her debut single "Somebody's Knockin'".

Ep 5: Tanya Tucker and Richard Bushrod

Tanya Tucker landed her first hit "Delta Dawn" at the age of 13 and went on to achieve great success with a string of top-10 and top-40 hits.

Ep 6: Rex Allen Jr and Denise Price

Rex Allen Jr, son of the famous "Arizona Cowboy", followed in his father's footsteps achieving success both as a musician and film narrator. He landed several top-ten hits including "No, No, No" which is performed live at Church Street.



Ep 7: Danny Davis & The Nashville Brass, Denise Price and Don Darnell

Danny Davis was a band leader, trumpet player and vocalist, who, together with his band, produced two top-ten albums.

Ep 8: Gail Davies, Denise Price and Downs & Price

Gail Davies was the first female record producer in country music. She also landed several top-10 hits.

Ep 9: The Diamonds, Fred Murr and Sunny South

The Diamonds are a vocal quartet that established themselves in the 50s and 60s with 16 hit records.

Ep 10: Charlie Rich, Carme and Wayne Billingsley

Charlie Rich is a Grammy Award winning country music artist best known for a pair of 1973 hits, "The Most Beautiful Girl" and "Behind Closed Doors".

Ep 11: Rex Allen Sr, Rex Jr and Denise Price

Rex Allen Sr. was an actor and musician known as "the Arizona Cowboy", who landed several top-10 hits. His son, Rex Allen Jr followed in his footsteps achieving success both as a musician and film narrator.

Ep 12: Eddy Raven, H. McMillon and Barbara Fairchild

Barbara Fairchild is best known for her 1973 hit "The Teddy Bear Song" which she performs live at Church Street, among others. Eddy Raven is best known for his Cajun-influenced country music and for charting more than 35 singles in his career.

Ep 13: Gary Morris and Denise Price

Gary Morris has charted numerous hits throughout the 80s, including "The Love She Found In Me" and "Headed For A Heartache", which he performs at Church Street, among others.

Ep 14: Gail Davies and Freddy Fender

Gail Davies was the first female record producer in country music and even landed several top-10 hits. Freddy Fender was an American Tejano, country and rock & roll star; he landed numerous number one singles, including "Secret Love", which he performs live at Church Street.

Ep 15: David Frizzell and Lorrie Morgan

David Frizzell was hugely popular in the 80s thanks to three top-ten hits: "I'm Gonna Hire a Wino to Decorate Our Home", "Lost My Baby Blues", and "Where Are You Spending Your Nights These Days". Lorrie Morgan has sold over 6 million records and charted 40 songs, including three number one hits: "Five Minutes," "What Part of No" and "I Didn't Know My Own Strength".

Ep 16: Mickey Gilley and Judy Rodman

Mickey Gilley was successful on both the country and pop charts. His biggest hits include "Room Full of Roses," "Don't the Girls All Get Prettier at Closing Time," and "Stand by Me"(remake). Judy Rodman was very popular in the 80s when she topped the chart with "Until I Met You".

Ep 17: Dottie West and Tom Wopat

Dottie West is considered one the most influential female country artists. She landed numerous hits including "Here Comes My Baby Back Again", which also won her a Grammy Award. Tom Wopat achieved fame as 'Luke' in the popular television series The Dukes of Hazzard, and has also released several popular country albums and pop standards.

Ep 18: George Jones and Johnny Rodriguez

George Jones achieved international fame for his many hit records, including his most popular song "He Stopped Loving Her Today". Johnny Rodriguez was one of country music's most successful artists. He famously infused Spanish and Latin sounds into his songs, many of which became hits, including "You Always Come Back to Hurting Me," "Desperado," "Down on the Rio Grande" and "Foolin'."

Ep 19: Sweethearts of The Rodeo, Ed Bruce and Lynn Anderson

Sweethearts of The Rodeo is a popular country duo that landed 7 hits on the Hot Country Songs chart in the late 80s, including "Midnight Girl/Sunset Town" and "Chains of Gold". Ed Bruce is best known for writing the 1975 song "Mammas Don't Let Your Babies Grow Up to Be Cowboys" and recording the number one hit "You're the Best Break This Old Heart Ever Had". Lynn Anderson was best known for a long line of hits throughout the 60s, 70s and 80s, in particularly "(I Never Promised You a) Rose Garden," which topped the country chart for 5 weeks.

Ep 20: Johnny Rodriguez and Johnny Russell

Johnny Rodriguez was one of country music's most successful artists. He famously infused Spanish and Latin sounds into his songs, many of which became hits, including "You Always Come Back to Hurting Me," "Desperado," "Down on the Rio Grande" and "Foolin'." Johnny Russell is best known for his song "Act Naturally", which was later recorded by Buck Owens in 1963, and The Beatles in 1965.

Ep 21: Dottie West and Freddy Weller

Dottie West is considered one the most influential female country artists. She landed numerous hits including "Here Comes My Baby Back Again", which also won her a Grammy Award. Freddy Weller charted with his debut release "Games People Play" in 1969 which peaked at #2.

Ep 22: Nitty Gritty Dirt Band and Gus Hardin

Nitty Gritty Dirt Band is a grammy award winning country rock band, best known for their cover of "Mr. Bojangles", and several successful albums including "Will the Circle Be Unbroken: Volume Two" and "Plain Dirt Fashion." Gus Hardin became highly popular in 1983 after the release of her top-10 hit "After The Last Goodbye."

Ep 23: Gene Watson and Lane Brody

Gene Watson is famous for a long string of hits, including "Love in the Hot Afternoon," "Fourteen Carat Mind," and "Farewell Party." Lane Brody is best known for her 1984 chart topping hit "The Yellow Rose," and for the Oscar-nominated hit "Over You" from a soundtrack album. She has eleven other hit singles.

Ep 24: Mickey Gilley and The Jordainaires

Mickey Gilley was successful on both the country and pop charts. His biggest hits include "Room Full of Roses," "Don't the Girls All Get Prettier at Closing Time," and "Stand by Me"(remake). The Jordainaires were a vocal quartet best known for providing background vocals for Elvis Presley.

Ep 25: Gene Watson, Cathy Hunter and Richard Bushrod

Gene Watson is famous for a long string of hits, including "Love in the Hot Afternoon," "Fourteen Carat Mind," and "Farewell Party."

Ep 26: Freddy Fender, Starlight Express and The Diamonds

Freddy Fender was an American Tejano, country and rock & roll star; he landed numerous number one singles, including "Secret Love", "Before the Next Teardrop Falls" and "Wasted Days and Wasted Nights". The Diamonds are a vocal quartet that established themselves in the 50s and 60s with 16 hit records including "Why Do Fools Fall in Love" and "Little Darlin'".

Ep 27: Razzy Bailey and Wayne Billingsley

Razzy Bailey charted seven no. 1 singles on the country charts including "Loving Up a Storm", "I Keep Coming Back", and "Midnight Hauler".

Ep 28: Gary Morris, Downs & Price and Denise Price

Gary Morris is a singer and stage actor best known for the 1983 ballad "The Wind Beneath My Wings". He charted over twenty-five singles, including five no. 1 hits.

Ep 29: Leon Everette and Lisa Silver

Leon Everette was active between 1977 and 2010. He successfully charted a long list of singles, many of which reached top-ten, including "Over", "Giving Up Easy" and "Hurricane".

Ep 30: Lee Greenwood and Pinkard & Bowden

Lee Greenwood is best known for his patriotic hit "God Bless the USA", which was released and met with great success in 1984. He also charted seven no. 1 hits, including "Somebody's Gonna Love You", "Going, Going, Done", and "Dixie Road". Pinkard & Bowden was a country music duo who famously wrote hit singles for several big names (including Mel Tillis and Anne Murray).

Ep 31: Earl Thomas Conley and Lloyd David Foster

Earl Thomas Conley charted over thirty singles, of which eighteen reached no. 1. These 18 hits marked the most no. 1s by any artist in any genre during the 80s.

Ep 32: Kenny Price, Wade Ray and Buddy Emmons

Kenny Price charted thirty-four singles on the Hot Country Songs chart, the highest peaking include "Walking on New Grass" and "Happy Tracks". Buddy Emmons was regarded as the world's foremost pedal steel guitarist of his day and was a widely sought session musician who performed with some of the biggest names around.

Ep 33: The Osmond Brothers and Curtis Young

The Osmond Brothers has sold more than 77 million records and boast several chart topping singles including "One Bad Apple", "The Proud One" and "Down by the Lazy River".

Ep 34: Boxcar Willie and Denise Price

Boxcar Willie, often referred to as "America's Favourite Hobo", sang in the "old-time hobo" music style.

Ep 35: The Hagers and Mel Tillis

The Hager Twins were a country music duo who gained fame on the TV series Hee Haw. Mel Tillis achieved enormous success with a long list of hits, including "I Ain't Never", "Good Woman Blues", and "Coca-Cola Cowboy".

Ep 36: Con Hunley and Kelly Lange

Con Hunley landed more than 20 hits, including "Weekend Friend," "What's New With You" and "Oh Girl".

Ep 37: Frenchie Burke and Helen Cornelius

Frenchie Burke's biggest commercial success was a Cajun waltz called "Big Mammou" which he altered to be more upbeat. Helen Cornelius is best known for a series of hit duets with Jim Brown, some of which peaked among the top ten on the U.S. country singles chart.

Ep 38: Pinkard & Bowden and Earl Thomas Conley

Pinkard & Bowden was a successful country music duo who became famous for their musical parody and original comedy songs. James Pinkard also wrote hit singles for several big names including Mel Tillis and Anne Murray. Earl Thomas Conley charted over thirty singles, of which eighteen reached no. 1. These 18 hits marked the most no. 1s by any artist in any genre during the 80s.

Ep 39: The Bellamy Brothers and Denise Price

The Bellamy Brothers achieved success after they topped the Billboard Hot 100 chart with their crossover hit "Let Your Love Flow" in 1976. They found success in country music too, charting twenty Number One singles, and more than fifty hits overall. They are the most nominated duo in country music history.

Ep 40: Lyn Paul and Johnny Tillotson

Lyn Paul achieved fame as a member of the international chart-topping pop group the New Seekers. She has more recently found success starring in the long-running West End musical, Blood Brothers. Johnny Tillotson was at the height of his success in the 60s, landing nine top-ten hits on the charts, including "Poetry in Motion" and "It Keeps Right On a-Hurtin'".

Ep 41: Thrasher Brothers and David Frizzell

The Thrasher Brothers' most successful single was "Still The One" which peaked at number sixty on the charts. David Frizzell was hugely popular in the 80s thanks to three top-ten hits: "I'm Gonna Hire a Wino to Decorate Our Home", "Lost My Baby Blues", and "Where Are You Spending Your Nights These Days".

Ep 42: Leroy Van Dyke and Mel Tillis

Leroy Van Dyke is best known for his hits "The Auctioneer" (1956) and "Walk On By" (1961). Mel Tillis achieved enormous success with a long list of hits, including "I Ain't Never", "Good Woman Blues", and "Coca-Cola Cowboy".

Ep 43: Connie Smith and Kieran Kane

Connie Smith is widely regarded as one of country music's best female vocalists. With 11 Grammy award nominations, 20 top-ten hit singles and 3 number one albums, in 2012 she was elected to the Country Music Hall of Fame. Kieran Kane is a successful country music artist, best recognised alongside Jamie O'Hara. Together they were known as The O'Kanes and charted seven singles, including the number one single "Can't Stop My Heart from Loving You".

Ep 44: Lorrie Morgan The Osmond Brothers

Lorrie Morgan has sold over 6 million records and charted 40 songs, including three number one hits: "Five Minutes," "What Part of No" and "I Didn't Know My Own Strength". The Osmond Brothers has sold more than 77 million records and boast several chart topping singles including "One Bad Apple", "The Proud One" and "Down by the Lazy River".

Ep 45: Gus Hardin and Rockin' Sidney

Gus Hardin became highly popular in 1983 after the release of her top-10 hit "After The Last Goodbye." Rockin' Sydney was famous for a number of songs, including "No Good Woman", "Tell Me" and his worldwide hit, "My Toot Toot".

Ep 46: Nitty Gritty Dirt Band and Stella Parton

Nitty Gritty Dirt Band is a grammy award winning country rock band, best known for their cover of "Mr. Bojangles", and several successful albums including "Will the Circle Be Unbroken: Volume Two" and "Plain Dirt Fashion." Stella Parton is best known for a string of singles that charted in the 70s, including her biggest hit "I Want to Hold You In My Dreams Tonight".

Ep 47: Jerry Lee Lewis, The Diamonds and Lou Christie

Jerry Lee Lewis has been described as "rock & roll's first great wild man". In the 50s he released a string of hits that shot him straight to fame worldwide, including "Whole Lotta Shakin' Goin' On" and "Great Balls of Fire", one of the world's best selling singles of all time. The Diamonds are a vocal quartet that established themselves in the 50s and 60s with 16 hit records. Lou Christie is best known for several pop hits in the 60s, including his 1966 hit "Lightnin' Strikes".

Ep 48: Billy Craddock and Tammy Wynette

Billy Craddock became popular after a string of rockabilly hits in the 50s, including the number one hit "Boom Boom Baby". He achieved significantly more fame after a string of country music hits in the 70s, including "Rub It In", "Broken Down in Tiny Pieces", and "Ruby Baby". Tammy Wynette is best known for "Stand by Your Man", one of the best-selling singles by a female country artist. She charted 20 number-one songs, earning the title "First Lady of Country Music".

Ep 49: Becky Hobbs and Razzy Bailey

Becky Hobbs has charted several singles on the country chart including the No. 10 hit "Let's Get Over Them Together", which she did as a duet with Moe Bandy. Razzy Bailey landed seven no. 1 singles on the country charts including "Loving Up a Storm", "I Keep Coming Back", and "Midnight Hauler".

Ep 50: Darrell McCall and The Forester Sisters

Darrell McCall is a popular country musician whose highest charting single was "A Stranger Was Here", which peaked at #17 on the country chart in 1963. The Forester Sisters are a quartet of sisters who grew famous in the 80s, charting fifteen top-10 hits on the Billboard country chart, several of which were number ones, including "I Fell in Love Again Last Night", "Just in Case", and "Mama's Never Seen Those Eyes".

Ep 51: Hoyt Axton and Jeannie C. Riley

Hoyt Axton became prominent in the 60s both as a musician and actor. Some of his best known songs include "Joy to the World", "The Pusher"and "No No Song". Jeannie C. Riley is best known for her 1968 number one hit "Harper Valley PTA".

Ep 52: Porter Wagoner and R.C. Finnigan

Porter Wagoner, known as Mr. Grand Ole Opry, has charted 81 singles before being inducted to the Country Music Hall of Fame. He was also famous for being in a vocal duo with Dolly Parton.

Ep 53: Mark Gray and Patty Loveless

Mark Gray's solo career landed him eight top-40 country hits, including "Sometimes When We Touch", which peaked at number 6. Patty Loveless is a hugely popular artist with a long list of hits, including 5 number ones:"Timber, I'm Falling in Love", "Chains", "Blame It on Your Heart", "You Can Feel Bad", and "Lonely Too Long".

Ep 54: Tom T. Hall and Williams & Ree

Tom T. Hall has charted 37 top ten hits, 11 of which were number ones, including the international pop crossover "Harper Valley PTA". Williams and Ree are a musical duo well known for filling time between songs with comedy sketches.

Ep 55: Merle Haggard

Merle Haggard landed 38 number-one hits between the 60s and 80s alone; his success continued into the 2000s. He has received numerous honors and awards, including a Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award, a Kennedy Center Honor, and an induction into the Country Music Hall of Fame.

Ep 56: Becky Hobbs & Bobby Bare

Becky Hobbs has charted several singles on the country chart including the No. 10 hit "Let's Get Over Them Together", which she did as a duet with Moe Bandy. Bobby Bare is best known for the songs "Detroit City" and "500 Miles Away from Home".

Ep 57: Ed Bruce & The Forester Sisters

Ed Bruce is best known for writing the 1975 song "Mammas Don't Let Your Babies Grow Up to Be Cowboys" and recording the number one hit "You're the Best Break This Old Heart Ever Had". The Forester Sisters are a quartet of sisters who grew famous in the 80s, charting fifteen top-10 hits on the Billboard country chart, several of which were number ones, including "I Fell in Love Again Last Night", "Just in Case", and "Mama's Never Seen Those Eyes".

Ep 58: Lane Brody & Ronnie McDowell

Lane Brody is best known for her 1984 chart topping hit "The Yellow Rose," and for the Oscar-nominated hit "Over You" from a soundtrack album. She has eleven other hit singles. Ronnie McDowell charted over 30 top-40 hits and is best known for his 1977 song "The King Is Gone".

Ep 59: George Jones & Mark Gray

George Jones achieved international fame for his many hit records, including his most popular song "He Stopped Loving Her Today". Mark Gray's solo career landed him eight top-40 country hits, including "Sometimes When We Touch", which peaked at number 6.

Ep 60: Tammy Wynette & Johnny Russell

Tammy Wynette is best known for "Stand by Your Man", one of the best-selling singles by a female country artist. She charted 20 number-one songs, earning the title "First Lady of Country Music". Johnny Russell is best known for his song "Act Naturally", which was later recorded by Buck Owens in '63, and The Beatles in '65.

Ep 61: Tammy Wynette

Tammy Wynette is best known for "Stand by Your Man", one of the best-selling singles by a female country artist. She charted 20 number-one songs, earning the title "First Lady of Country Music".

Visit www.onemediaip.com

For sales enquiries please contact One Media iP Ltd
623 East Props Building, Goldfinger Avenue, Pinewood Studios, Iver Heath, Buckinghamshire, SL0 0NH, United Kingdom

Alice Dyson
Chief Operating Officer
ONE MEDIA iP Ltd
Tel: +44 (0) 1753 785 500 | Mob: +44 (0) 74 7754 3599
Email: alice@onemediaip.com

Kathryn Brewer
Senior Creative Technician
ONE MEDIA iP Ltd
Tel: +44 (0) 1753 785 500 | Mob: +44 (0) 78 1775 5693
Email: kathryn@onemediaip.com